Celebrating Freedom and Community

A message from At-Large Councilmember Karen Lang

July is such a good time to remember how lucky we are to live in the land of the free. All the flags are out, people are gathering to watch the parades and fireworks and groups of friends and family are gathering for picnics and a game of baseball. We have the opportunity to celebrate our freedom and appreciate the peace and sense of community found only in America.

Each day we need to be thankful to the families that have sacrificed to serve our country. We are very fortunate to have men and women that are willing to serve, and we need to remember the families around us that have lost loved ones in this service. Also, be mindful of the families that have members serving now and pitch in to help where possible.

While family members are away we can help mow lawns, sit with the children so parents can get errands done or anything else that is helpful. As a city we can create a sense of community by looking for ways to help our neighbors.

In the coming weeks, as part of the city's National Night Out observance, many of our neighborhoods will be having block parties. This is a great opportunity for you to get to know your neighbors, and there are many ways you can participate. West Valley City's Neighborhood Services Office can help you find a block party in your neighborhood, or can help you organize a block party of your own. Please take the time to join in and become part of your community.

There are many other opportunities for you to be part of the community and get to know your neighbors. Free weekly concerts at the Utah Cultural Celebration Center (Mondays) and at the Fairbourne Station Plaza (Fridays) offer a relaxed, fun atmosphere for the entire family. Neighborhood Meetups provide an opportunity to meet your neighbors and city elected officials. Many more events throughout the city are taking place all summer. You can find a full list at www.wvc-ut.gov/calendar.

Summer is a great time to get out and enjoy our great community and spend time together. I certainly hope that you have a great and wonderful summer.

Fridays at 6:00 p.m. at the Fairbourne Station Plaza, 2810 W. 3600 S.
